

SoDakSACA Leadership Award

(The 'SACCY' Award)

PURPOSE OF AWARD

This award is presented annually at the state conference, to recognize an individual, group, organization or business from South Dakota who has shown distinguished service to an OST program, or the OST field in general; and who exemplifies dedication to, support of, and advocacy for school-age care.

GUIDELINES

- Nominations must be in narrative form. (Use format on the back of this form)
- Nominations may be made by any current member of SoDakSACA.
- Nominee must clearly exemplify meritorious involvement, to include the following:
  - Specifically state the nominee's contribution; years of service
  - Show the nominee has been active in community affairs and education issues
  - If applicable, explain the role they have played in SoDakSACA to include, but not limited to:
    - Promotion of quality out of school time programming for children and youth
    - Professional development
    - Public advocacy
    - Interest in the mission

Recipient will be determined by a vote of the SACCY award committee, appointed by the President and based on the guidelines provided above.

Application deadline is September 1 of the current membership year.

Award will be presented at the annual SoDakSACA conference.
