Building a Solid Team

This training is for directors and supervisors that are looking at building a strong team by identifying similarities and difference amongst staff, defining your culture, learning tools to achieving team decision making and learning how to successfully implement change.

Let's share, learn and take away ideas for excellence!

Friday, October 11th
Keynote Speaker:

Malcom “Chap” Chapman

Malcom “Chap” Chapman is president and founder of the Chapman Group, founded 1996, which offers a variety of consulting services including retreat facilitation, strategic planning, training, leadership development, course development, seminars, and keynote addresses. Additionally, he offers course work based on models he has designed: Harvesting the Company Mind and The Five Powers.

Chap draws from wide-ranging experience in both public and private sectors to enrich his work through the Chapman Group. He served in the U.S. Marine Corp and held the rank of Captain at his discharge, enjoyed a career in professional sales, worked as a consultant to the Center for Naval Analysis—a Washington, D.C. think tank, and is active with American Society for Training and Development.

Saturday, October 12th
Keynote Speaker:

Sheltered Reality

Begun in late 1996 as a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, Sheltered Reality (SR) has dedicated itself to being a youth-oriented project, where youth members in SR use music and education as a way to reach out to audiences, motivating them to advocate for those in need, especially children and families.

The educational message presented focuses on facts, statistics, and real-life stories, and culminates with character education and ideas for action. Topics include personal empowerment, success at living out life dreams, as well as anti-bullying, alcohol and drug prevention, suicide prevention, and other negatives that impact the lives of today's youth. SR's unique percussive approach to performing music challenges audience members
