

Shauna Bruce Hamburger

Shauna is a dynamic Motivational Speaker, Life Coach, Author, and Owner of her speaking and coaching company "Divine Potential". She has been speaking professionally for over 10 years and has spoken nationally as well as regionally and locally. Although born with Spina Bifida (the most common permanently disabling birth defect), she has always believed in living life to the fullest and with a positive attitude.

Shauna has a B.S. in Wellness Management from Black Hills State University, and truly has a passion for helping others live healthier and more fulfilling lives.

A Wyoming native, Shauna currently lives in Cheyenne, WY with her husband Loren. Shauna authored her first book "Beyond Adversity into Freedom," published through Insight Publishing in 2010. In her book, Shauna shares her story of how she has found genuine joy and freedom even in the midst of the adversity of living daily with the most severe form of Spina Bifida.

Nichelle Harris Shaskus

Nichelle Harris, Director of the Ohio Afterschool Network, has been a passionate leader in the field of school age child care, Afterschool and Summer Learning for over 25 years. In the past she has worked for numerous youth serving community-based organizations and held a variety of positions, from camp counselor to volunteer youth sports coach to Director of Youth and Family Programming.

In her current role as the OAN Director, Nichelle connects people across the state of Ohio, shares her expertise on topics affecting the field and helps advise on national trends and best practices. Nichelle was a past White-Riley-Peterson Policy Fellow and NAA Emotional Intelligence Fellow and chairs several national leadership committees for the field. She holds an Education degree from the Ohio State University.

Justine Kougl

Justine Kougl is a mother of 3, public speaker, ranch wife, non-profit executive director, living in rural Big Horn County, Montana. Her youngest born, Quinn Marie aka "Twinkles", was born with a cranio-facial syndrome called Treacher Collins causing underdeveloped bone structures in her lower to mid-range face but always lived life to the fullest! Beautiful Quinn passed away unexpectedly in December 2018. Justine has been speaking across the region to share their story as well as let others know that being different is beautiful, challenging, and amazing all at the same time.

Quinn Kougl was born with a twinkle in her eye and a twist in her chromosomes. Born with Treacher Collins Syndrome, she had been through 5 surgeries in her 3 years of life and never let a day go by where she didn't show love and heart to everyone she met. Quinn's heroes were her older siblings Nora, age 7 and Cody, age 6. If she had a choice they would have stay home with her all day to play.
