MAKING POSITIVE CONNECTIONS
WHILE MAINTAINING A DISCIPLINED ENVIRONMENT

Many students show up not knowing how to behave! Love and Logic skills help adults maintain authority in caring and compassionate ways. These skills help adults set firm limits, avoid power struggles, build positive relationships, and create thinking while maintaining mutual dignity.

Join us for an evening with: Myrna Becker

Myrna is a certified Love and Logic trainer and will share ways to incorporate Love and Logic skills into your work. She comes to us with 39+ years of experience as a school counselor/psychologist, where she used these skills daily.
